

Matas, Tyler Bio

Tyler Matas - Lead Trainer

Born and raised on the island of Oahu, Tyler started playing soccer when he was 4 years old. Throughout his youth career, he accumulated many accolades such as; US CLUB Soccer national champions, ODP Regional Team, as well as Hawaii High School Soccer State Champion. He then attended Notre Dame de Namur University where he played four years of collegiate soccer. While getting his Bachelor's Degree of Science, in Kinesiology, he was also able to have a very successful collegiate career. Earning titles such as "Defensive Player of the Year," as well as being named to the All-American teams released by National Soccer Coaches Association. Fortunately, his soccer career did not end after college. He went on to play 3 years of professional soccer in the Philippines. Earning a few National team call-ups and playing in the AFC Cup qualification. Now he coaches youth soccer back in Hawaii and is currently working on getting his coaching licenses.
